Everyone Is Uniquely Made By The Hand of The Most High God

Introduction To Our New Series ("Sermons Your Pastor Won't Preach.")

In this new series I will be discussing topics that are considered controversial from a religious and societal standpoint. These forthcoming edifications I've many houses of worship might consider them too divisive or taboo to bring before their congregations. These edifications would probably be deemed as inappropriate subject matter for church curriculum. My only purpose in this particular series is to bring forward God's "TRUTH" and let the ball fall where it may. No one will be spared from the light of the TRUTH. There will be equal rights and lefts doled out to everyone regardless of religion, age, sex, race, gender, culture or religious affiliation. With that being said let's dive into our first edification of our new series.

"Everyone Is Uniquely Made By The Hand of The Most High God "

(Abortion from God's Perspective).

Imagine you have a workshop and an esteemed reputation for creating some the most unique pieces of art ever seen by mankind. No one piece is ever made the same. Every piece is uniquely crafted down to the most granular details. And let's say for the sake of conversation. You've made over 20 Million absolutely beautiful hand crafted pieces of art and you sent them out for delivery.

To various families all over the world. And then a few weeks later these beautiful one of a kind pieces of art. Start to show up at your doorstep in blooded boxes with your artwork, ripped apart, broken, mangled, completely disfigured and devoid of life. How do you think that makes God feel?! As the Creator of all mankind. He sent us all these beautiful one of a kind masterpieces.

All of His handiwork, imagination and creativity stuffed into each one of them. Only to be shattered into a thousand pieces. All of those poor little souls that will never have an opportunity to grow up and blossom into the wonderful human beings they were projected to be. Bringing all types of new gifts to mankind. Cures for deadly diseases, prolific music/musicians, singers, songwriters and composers.

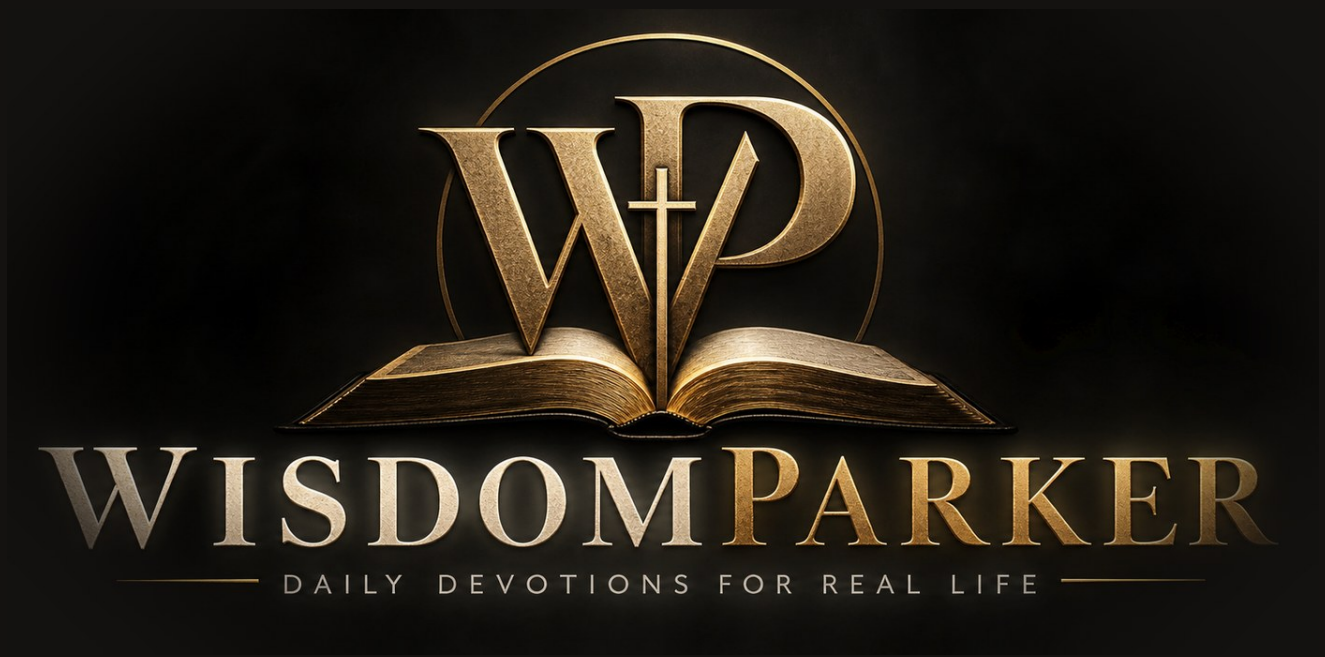

Bringing angelic sounds and voices unheard of to this troubled world. But for reasons known and unknown. Unfortunately these beautiful souls will never make it here. Their destinations were cut short by "short sighted" human beings making poor, careless and selfish decisions with lives of those who do not have a voice. These poor souls will not have an opportunity to adjudicate their case for life before the Supreme Court.

Never having a voice or a chance to debate their sovereign rights to be given a chance to be here. Simply, because their earthly parents were too selfish and insensitive to hear their spiritual cries for a chance life. We have to do better people. If we don't the Lord will balance the scales. And trust me, we're not going to like it.

Until then stay in your word and we'll convene tomorrow morning. Be Blessed!

DAILY DRILL

Write down one hard question about your faith that you have been avoiding. Beside it, write the first Scripture you will search, and read it with an open mind.
