Who's Going To Clean Up The Mess On Aisle Five?

"Who's Going To Clean Up The Mess On Aisle Five?" (The Introduction To Our New Edification Series)

I've been warned by several good friends of mine. To never mix politics and religion in my edifications. They don't want me to get all deep into what they call the "icky stuff." Just give us a "quick" Godly word filled with a boost of feel good scriptures to start our day. "Nothing heavy brother Parker." And for the most part I've tried to keep a delicate balance between the two.

However, I also know that I was given a task by God Himself to deliver the truth and feed His children. No matter how "icky" it might make His children feel. It's obviously time for me to stop feeding you guys all those sugary cereals and give you a hot bowl of oatmeal this morning. Something that gonna stick to your ribs. Here's the cold hard truth.

We're now under a covert/overt invasion. We're on the precipice of a "Holy War" between God and satan (Heaven and Hell). Like it or not we've been ushered onto the spiritual and physical battlefield between God and satan. And we have to choose a side. We currently have two distinct political parties. Each one representing either God or deity they follow.

One party (Republicans) wants to keep God’s laws and decrees in all areas of our lives and our children's lives. And the other party (Democrats) wants us to handover our country, our borders, our guns and our freedoms. In addition, they're also allowing to women to terminate the lives of innocent unborn children all the way up to delivery (9 months) in certain Democratic states.

These innocent babies don't have a voice or the physical ability to oppose the death sentence being levied on their lives. These murderous laws and actions are being levied against these poor innocent babies by Democratic states and their own freaking mother's. For God's sake! Both the state and the mothers want end the lives of these beautiful innocent souls.

This is absolutely insane and demonic to say the least. Giving women the right to spill the blood of their "own" innocent babies. Why? So, these women can continue to sin and practice immortality. So, they can continue to have more unprotected sex with random men for their own personal and sexual enjoyment?! All the while failing to see how their selfish actions are helping satan and his demonic minions of Islam to infiltrate our local, city, state and federal government and law enforcement agencies with their own people.

With the direct intent to replace our Constitution and our way of life with Islam and Sharia Law. That's not going to happen on my watch. This is absolutely insane. Tomorrow we'll attack Islam's veil threats and the United States Supreme Courts need to either modify or abolish a woman's right to vote. Based upon potential National Security protocols.

Stay tuned God is cooking. Be blessed and we'll talk tomorrow.

Who's Going To Clean Up The Mess On Aisle Five?!

"Who's Going To Clean Up The Mess On Aisle Five?!" (Part One)

Why the title? Well in my 60 plus years of experience. Whenever a mistake is made there's also a mess that must be cleaned up. In Corporate America we call it "Damage Control." In a Retail Setting it's called a "spill" and usually requires someone with a mop or broom to clean it up quickly to prevent further legal exposure of a "slip and fall." Especially, if another customer accidentally comes across the "spill" unaware.

Well the same is true with poor policy execution and decision making. Whether personal or professional. Someone's going to have to get in front of the crisis in order to mitigate, or absorb the damages. With any social experiment there's always a point where the costs begin to outweigh the benefits. And that's where we find ourselves today in our society with liberalism, modern feminism, socialism, marxism and communism running rampant.

It's becoming quite clear that this is a "intellectual cancer" that that has overstayed its welcome. This cancer is eating away and eroding the American family, our values, our morals and the American way of life. What are the next steps? I believe the next natural question to ask is... "Who's going to clean it up?" Well it's going to take Men like me.

Men who are loyal to God, Christianity and the American way of life. Good God fearing men who also possess an exceptional skills at applying great violence upon any sworn enemy of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and the American way of life, enemies both foreign and domestic. Your next natural question would probably be..."Why would God choose men like me to address this problem?" The answer is this.."God has never picked His Generals or Soldiers from the ranks of the unscarred." God is raising up an "Hidden Army" of men and women.

That He Himself personally saved in the "wilderness." Men and women who were abandoned by their family, friends, relatives, underworld crime family's. Men and women who were thrown to the wolves to and expected to be devoured. But, God saved each and every last one of them from certain death. He gave each of them a new lease on life and they've sworn "INDIVISIBLE" allegiance to "Yah Weh" the Most High God Himself.

He now holds the leash to these talented men and women who are experts in the art of Spiritual and Physical Warfare. Who's now chomping at the bit to be released upon satan and his minions. These are human "Cane Corso's" Who are yanking on the leash and barking viciously, salivating and growling. Who's only mission in life is to professionally "Clean Up The Mess On Aisle Five." Period.

Point Blank!!! We'll talk more tomorrow about the "metrics" God is using to analyze the severity of our current crisis. Stay in your word and be ready for action my brothers and sisters. God Bless!!!

“But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one.”
2 THESSALONIANS 3:3 (NKJV)

But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one.

"Who's Going To Clean Up The Mess On Aisle Five?! (Part Two)

I've mentioned in my earlier edifications that I would eventually deal with the "metrics" of our Nations current calamity. And why we as the men of America. Have to establish the repelling of a woman's right to vote and have abortions as our initial "Beach Head." When you start looking at this issue from the lense of National Security.

You'll begin to see the glaring flaws in our politicians, laws, policies and our society as a whole. In order for us to gain control of our borders and our citizenry. We have no sensible choice but to neutralize both a woman's ability to vote and the right to have abortions. If we don't move aggressively on both these issues. We as a nation are going to experience a physical and spiritual turbulence and enter into a "irretrievable tailspin" that we won't have the time nor the manpower to get back on track.

So, bear with me for a moment as I remove the crusty bandages from our first crippling wound (Abortion). Our women over the years have been touted by both the mainstream media and social media as our intellectual equals and true patriots of the United States. Then my question for the women this morning is.."Why haven't they ever asked themselves this obvious question." "What would happen if we don't have enough children now and in the future to be able to strengthen our Armed Forces.

Will we have the adequate amount of manpower protect these United States from our enemies both foreign and domestic?!" This question has never been asked, nor answered by the beautiful ladies of these United States of America. So, let's just have a brief look at the birth numbers for Americans and Arabs. We as Americans are currently having one child to every 3.4 Arab child.

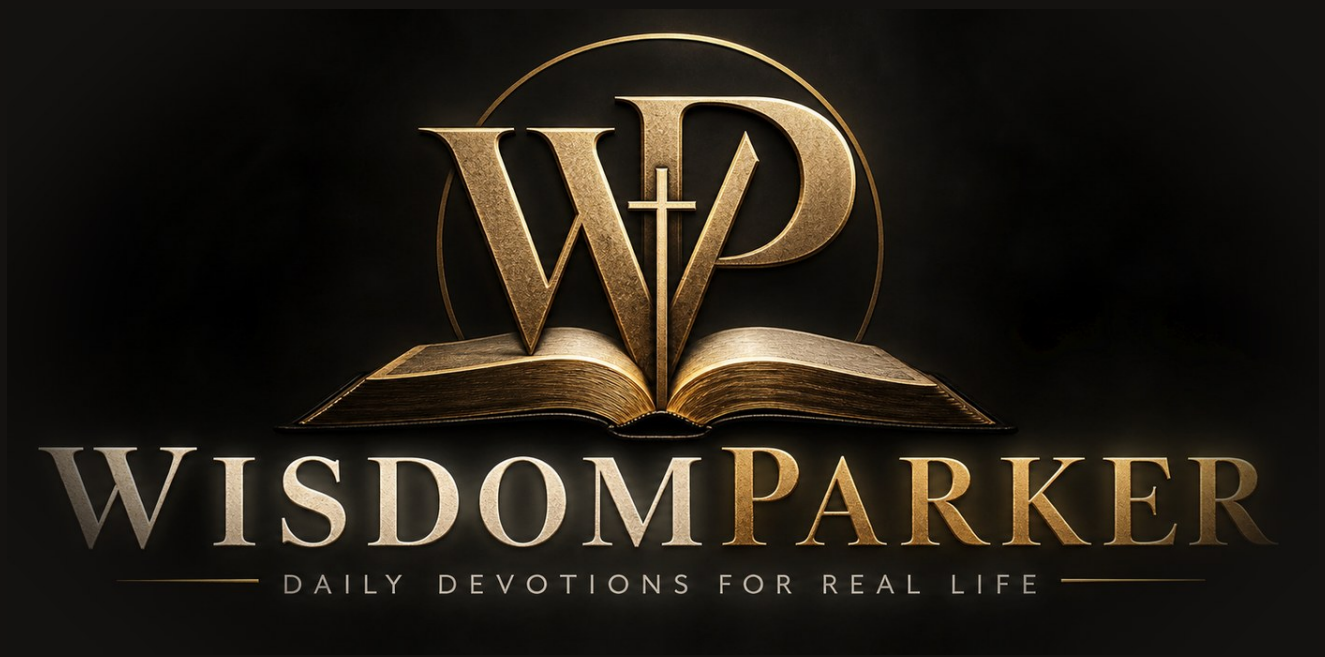

The most popular name in most western countries is "Mohammed." And based upon our (the United States) current rates of birth. Islamic families will out produce us in children and out pace us in population in just a few short decades. This is why this has become a National Security threat and all "Stop Gap" measures need to be put into place immediately.

With the removal of a woman's right to vote and have abortions. We could eventually gain the momentum needed to have the pendulum switch into our favor and stop the hemorrhaging of all of our beautiful babies. That are needed and necessary for our the strength and the replenishment of our Republic. It would also eradicate candidates running for office who don't believe in America or our American values.

The United States has the largest Christian population in the world. This why the islamists always chant "Death to America!" Because if they can cut off our America's head then the body of Christ globally will fall. Stay in your word brother and sisters. We are currently involved in a Holy War. "Leave nothing but smoldering body parts in your wake." -Don Parker
